

TTR/WSF/IJC/FIS Judge Session 2015

Les Diablerets, Switzerland
September 17th – 20th, 2015

The World Snowboard Federation (WSF) in collaboration with Ticket to Ride (TTR), International Snowboard Judges Committee (IJC) and FIS are happy to invite you to The Snowboard Judge Session in Les Diablerets, Switzerland, September 17th - 20th, 2015. This is the first International TTR/WSF/FIS Judge Clinic in Europe and we are planning to repeat it every year.

The goal of the session is to create a uniform judging platform that spans all levels of snowboarding competition. This will make judging far more consistent for both the riders and judges alike.

WSF National Judge Session	September 17 th
WSF/TTR/ FIS International Judge Session	September 18 th - 20 th

ABOUT THE SESSION

National Level Session (basics)

This National Session is geared towards smaller events (REGIONAL and NATIONAL level). Focus is on judging and judge training. It also includes training on safety and running of freestyle events, as well as judging systems and formats. Session includes a test (video judging and theory).

By completing the test at the end of the national judge-clinic, participants will receive a “TTR/WSF National C Certification” which gives them certification to judge at REGIONAL and NATIONAL level events and to be head judge at REGIONAL level events.

After a judge fulfills the criteria laid out in the attached document and attends the required Judging Session, higher levels of certification will be awarded, up to National B Certification. Which gives the certification to judge at REGIONAL and NATIONAL level of events and to be head judge at NATIONAL level events. Once B Level Certification is achieved, the judge will be certified to train judges in their region in cooperation with the NSA they belong to. This education has to be based on the provided education material and a maximum of a National C Certification can be given out by the educator.

International Clinic – cooperation between WSF/TTR/IJC/FIS

TTR/WSF/IJC Pro Certification entry criteria:

- TTR/WSF/IJC National B Certificate and a recommendation from their NSA (max. 2 per nation)
- Invited judges by TTR

By attending the international judge-clinic and fulfilling the criteria, participants will receive a “TTR/WSF A Level Certification” – which gives them the permission to be judge at INTERNATIONAL and ELITE level events (as well every level below) and to be head judge at International events. Once A Level Certification is achieved, the judge will be certified to train judges in their Nation in cooperation with the NSA they belong to. This education has to be based on the provided education material and a maximum of a National B Certification can be given out by the educator.

After the judges, or the NSAs they belong to, can prove judged events on INTERNATIONAL / ELITE level, they have fulfilled the criteria and shown strong leadership and judging skills they will receive the “TTR/WSF/IJC International PRO Certificate” – which gives them the permission to judge ELITE level and to be head judge on INTERNATIONAL / ELITE level.

TTR/WSF Certification Protocol

Judge Levels

The TTRs goal is to send the best possible judges to each competition.

The level and type of competition determines the certification required of the judges. After the competition schedule has been established, the TTR will determine how many judges will be needed for the upcoming season. The TTR will select, for INTERNATIONAL and ELITE level events the best possible judges out of the pool of those who participated in the certification / recertification process.

The certification process also includes regional aspects to meet the organizers' needs. Therefore the competition between judges within a region is of great importance. To get certified as a Pro Judge, you have to work harder than ever before to be in the top group of judges out of your region. The TTR Judge Symposiums are a good platform for you to present your knowledge and capabilities.
